Digewi Deer-The Tale of a Blind Deer Digewi Deer-The Tale of a Blind Deer by new author and outdoors lover Angie Carpenter is a childrens fiction book about the animals in a forest community. Digewis mother, Prycelia, teaches her son and his best friend, Jake Turkey, Cherokee Indian words that her great-grandmother taught her. Readers see the two best friends growing up together and experiencing learning adventures along the way. All-too-real threats create thrilling, uncertain situations for them and for Digewis mother. This tale includes dealing with loss and grief, counting on friends, and following through on commitments. It did, indeed, take the entire forest community to raise Digewi. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
