Excerpt: . . . that we may both follow the example of His patience, and also may be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. This day begins the most awfully solemn and mournfully affecting week of the whole year, the great, the holy Passion-week. It is called the great week, says St. Chrysostom, not because it consists of longer days, or more in number than other weeks, but because at this time great things were wrought for us by our Lord. For, in this week, the ancient tyranny of the devil was dissolved (destroyed), death was extinguished, the strong man was bound, his goods were spoiled, sin was abolished, the curse was destroyed, paradise was opened, heaven placed within our reach; the God of peace made peace between things in heaven and things on earth; therefore it is called the great...
