ALAN RODGERS BOOKS, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Never are there such departures as from the dock at Honolulu. The great transport lay with steam up, ready to pull out. A thousand persons were on her decks; five thousand stood on the wharf. Up and down the long gangway passed native princes and princesses, sugar kings and the high officials of the Territory. Beyond, in long lines, kept in order by the native police, were the carriages and motor-cars of the Honolulu aristocracy. On the wharf the Royal Hawaiian Band played Aloha Oe, and when it finished, a stringed orchestra of native musicians on board the transport took up the same sobbing strains, the native woman singer's voice rising birdlike above the instruments and the hubbub of departure. - From Aloha Oe Originally published in 1912, this collection contains six stories: The House of Pride, Koolau the Leper, Good-bye, Jack, Aloha Oe, Chun Ah Chun, and The Sheriff of Kona. A departure from London's usual tales of the frozen North, all of these tales take place in the islands of Hawaii. London (born John Griffith Chaney, January 12, 1876 November 22, 1916) was an American author, journalist, and social activist. A pioneer in the then-burgeoning world of commercial magazine fiction, he was one of the first fiction writers to obtain worldwide celebrity and a large fortune from his fiction alone.
