Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Transactions of the International Engineering Congress, 1915: Index Volume, Sessions Held Under the Auspices of American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, the Society of Naval Architects and Ma Second: to serve, in some measure, as a guide to those who may be called upon in the future to conduct a similar congress. It will be readily appreciated that it is not possible to mention even the names of the many individuals who have contributed in varying degrees to the success of the Congress, still less to give to each the proper credit for services rendered, and no attempt has been made to do so. While the bulk of the work of the Congress has naturally fallen upon the members of the Committee of Management, they have been greatly assisted by many engineers and others outside of its membership, both in this country and abroad, and the Committee takes this opportunity of expressing to all such, as well as to the contributors of papers and discussions, its appreciation of and thanks for the aid and support which they have generously given to the undertaking.
