Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Efficiency in Education, 1902: Inaugural Address Delivered at the First Annual Meeting of the Scottish Nor have we any desire unduly to exalt our own subject at the expense of others. We are most of us workers in the teaching of Latin and of Greek; we are all of us, . I take it, believers in the supreme value to the intellectual life of the nation of the preservation of classical study, as a means of the highest mental discipline, for all such as have the natural aptitude, and can afford the time needed, to turn those studies to account. But we recognise the fact that those studies, with their severe demands, are not, and by their very nature cannot be made, available for all; we recognise that with the advance of knowledge in all departments, there are other subjects which must form part of any general scheme of higher education, however high; and that there are other directions in which, if only right methods be employed, and right aims held in view, a liberal...
