It is under the same management as St. Hubert's Inn and forms a part of the Inn's equipment, affording a number of desirable rooms and accommodations for early and late guests. St. Hubert's Inn stands on Keene Heights a half a mile south of the cottage, on the spot occupied by the Beede House, burned in 1890. Beede Houghton, proprietors. The growth of business here has been remarkable and seemingly without effort on the part of its founders. Visitors coming here years ago found the old hunter, Smith Beede and his son Orlando, who had himself in those early days become noted as hunter and guide. The small house occupied then became a noted resort, much too small for the accommodation of would-be guests, and in 1877 a plain but roomy hotel was built on the plateau above....
