Excerpt: .classes, either in University College or in Manchester New College, is periodically tested by examination held by the Professors or other Examiners appointed by the committee of the last-named College, at the end of every term, and a public examination at the close of the Session. UNDERGRADUATE PERIOD. During this period the Student is chiefly engaged in the classes of University College, in Greek, Latin, and Mathematics, or Natural Philosophy. If he be on the Foundation, Manchester New College defrays the fees for these three courses, but does not encourage him to disperse his attention over more. Should he intend to graduate, he is expected to matriculate in the University of London not later than the end of his first year, and to take the degree of B.A. by the end of the third, so as to bring an undivided interest to the studies of his Theological Period. The discipline of this preparatory period is mainly subsidiary to the classes of University College, and to the examinations in prospect for Matriculation and Graduation. A portion of the Historical Beading required by the University of London is prescribed for the Under-graduates of each year at the commencement of each Term; and at the close of each Term is made the subject of written examination. Students in the first year are exercised in the elementary notions and terms of Logic in its relation to Grammar; and prepared by study of a Textbook, with suitable practice in Composition and Grammatical...
