Golden sunlight filtered through a dusty window into an empty room, giving light only in scattered patches - like tiny islands of warm objectivity in an otherwise cold and lonely dungeon of imprisoned thoughts and suppressed desires - this I see in your eyes; this I feel when I hear your words. Let me break the windows that you hide behind. From poet, geek, witch, and musician Deacon Ramsey comes The Warlock s Dream, a collection of poetry and song lyrics from the dark side. Sometimes twisted, sometimes bleak, and sometimes darkly humorous, the words assembled here look long into the abyss and yet still manage to see the light at the end of the tunnel.
